13-16 July 2010

This course examines the Catholic Church's ritual care when one of its members dies. It explores the unfolding ensemble of rites found in the ritual book the Order of Christian Funerals (1989). Attention will be given to the historical, theological, liturgical and pastoral underpinnings of these rites, examining them as a ritual process through which the church is present in times of death and bereavement. Pastoral issues related to the Catholic funeral will also be given attention.
