

FULLY HUMAN, FULLY ALIVE

LEARNING TO LIVE CONTEMPLATIVELY

Icon with Lavender, Earle Backen 1984

The Rev Philip Carter will lead a workshop in ways of enriching our spiritual life in the twenty-first century. Between presentations on prayer, poetry and the Christian imagination there will be opportunities for reflection and discussion.

Philip is an Anglican priest and gifted spiritual director in the Diocese of Adelaide. He has been Adviser in Spirituality to the Diocese, Director of the Adelaide Retreat House, Pastoral Chaplain to St Barnabas Theological College, an Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of Adelaide, and most recently Director of the Julian Centre for Spirituality in Adelaide. He was a founding member and President of the Australian Network for Spiritual Direction and was the inaugural President of the Australian Ecumenical Council for Spiritual Direction.

Christ Church St Laurence Parish Hall,
505 Pitt St, Sydney
(opp Central Railway Station)
2.00 – 5.30pm Saturday 18 September 2010

The day will conclude with afternoon tea followed by Gregorian Vespers of the Blessed Virgin at 5.30pm sung in the church by The Vespers Schola of Christ Church St Laurence (conducted by Neil McEwan).

Please join us for this beautiful and contemplative service.

Bookings are essential for catering and planning a.bergman@csl.org.au or CCSL Parish Office: 9211 0560

A donation at the door of $20 ($10 for student and concession cards) will contribute to covering the costs of the event

