

Trade Training Centre Opening at St Joseph's Aberdeen. 16th May 2011

On Monday, 16 May, the Mary MacKillop Trade Training Centre was opened at St Joseph's High School, Aberdeen. Sr Marie Hughes represented the CSO as well as the Sisters of St Joseph along with Sr Laretta Baker.

This building which is situated to the left of the main entrance and was funded under the Commonwealth Government's Building Education Revolution to provide up to date facilities for students studying vocational education courses in woodwork, metal work and agriculture.

In recognition of the contribution made by the Sisters of St Joseph, Sr Laretta Baker was asked to speak about Mary MacKillop and her legacy to Catholic education.
