

Heather Mary Parmeter

was born in Murwillumbah on 22nd July, 1915, daughter of Francis Percival Parmeter and Ivy Casey , sister of Norman, Hazel, Darrell, Ronald and Iris.

She entered the Novitiate at Lochinvar on 26th July 1934, and as Sr Mary Martha, she was professed on 5th January, 1937.

*As Sr Mary Martha of the Precious Blood, she taught generations of infants classes in varied schools of the diocese and beyond including: Lochinvar, Cundletown, Port Macquarie, Cessnock, Dungog, Swansea, Clifton Gardens,
Kendall, Carrington, Kurri Kurri, Gateshead, Summer Hill, Merewether Beach,
The Junction, Cardiff.*

Heather was an inventive and venturesome teacher, always willing to share her many gifts in arts, crafts and music. Her skill in crochet and tatting gained her awards at the local shows where she willingly participated in community events. It gave her great satisfaction to take on a challenge to meet the requirements of greater education gaining credit in the Higher School Certificate and exploring theology with the Mater Dei Institute, Manly in 1980.

*In 1996 Heather became a resident at St Francis Village Eleebana
where she delighted in growing exquisite orchids that gave joy to all visitors.
In December, 2002, Heather transferred to the Nursing Home at Sandgate where she was lovingly cared for until her death.*

*Sr Heather died very peacefully on Monday 9th March 2009
in St Joseph's Nursing Home, Sandgate.*

*Please remember Sr Heather in your prayers.
May her dear soul rest in peace.*
